INPAX | DHG-1 Handgun Handling and Safety (Women Only)

We give you the skills to use it responsibly.

This introductory course will give you a comprehensive, entry-level, understanding of firearm safety, gun handling, and marksmanship, as well as a working knowledge of fundamental firearm theory as it pertains to personal defense. Gun calibers, firearm ballistics, proper gun selection and safe ownership will all be examined.

There are significant differences between “target shooting” and using a handgun as a defensive instrument. With this course, you take your first steps towards being confidently capable of using a handgun as a defensive tool in your personal security toolbox.

In this course, you will learn...:

Firearm Selection & Safety. The 3 critical criteria for selecting the right Defensive Handgun and the 4 critical safety rules and how to apply them on and off the range.

Defensive Shooting. The 4 fundamentals of defensive firearm usage that enable you to use a handgun deliberately, accurately, and under duress.

Stopping Power. The 4 ways of stopping an aggressor. The relationship between firearm caliber and stopping power, and how it pertains to selecting the right firearm for personal protection.

About the Programs

INPAX training is available in private and group formats, with age appropriate training available for Adults, Teens (age 13-16), and Youths (age 9-12).

Anyone can learn. INPAX does not require physical size, strength or endurance, nor years of continuous practice.

Use immediately. INPAX allows for a high level of skill development in a very short period of time.

Use without fail. INPAX quickly becomes part of your muscle memory, with virtually no need to practice.

A mindset, not just a skill. Every other self-defense method starts at the fight. INPAX is the only program that teaches physical skills and the mindset to avoid or deter the fight, including how bad guys target victims and how your brain operates under stress.
